Please join us for a relaxed and fun fundraiser! The beautiful McKinney Oceanfront Center will be decked out with historical displays, live music, drinks, and fabulous food! We invite you to watch the sunset, be part of our opportunity drawing, silent auction, and dance the night away for a great cause. Your partnership proceeds go directly to provide scholarships for kids to go to camp as well as facility projects at YMCA Camp Surf.

Details of the fun

- Great food and offerings from local breweries, wineries, and vendors
- Silent auction with trips, events, and unique items
- Ocean sunset, dinner, live music, and dancing
- Celebrating Camp Surf's history and community impact

Target Audiences

- Families with or without kids that support the YMCA and our community
- Community Leaders - this event attracts local political and business leaders from Coronado, Imperial Beach, and San Diego County
- Community Members - neighbors and families that live in the Imperial Beach and Coronado Communities are invited through local networking and media
- Camper Families - promoted to 3,000 families from all over San Diego County
- Vendors, supporters and donors - over 400 influential community supporters and company leaders will be targeted for attendance
- Alumni - over 2,000 camp alumni will continue to be a part of and share the camp experience with guests
